BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

ADNA R. CHAFFEE,

Lieutenant General, Chief of Staff.

OFFICIAL:

F. C. AINSWORTH,

The Military Secretary.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, April 14, 1906.

ORDERS:

All business arising in the Army which is referred to The Military Secretary for the action of superior authority, and which does not come within the jurisdiction of chiefs of bureaus, and all business emanating from the bureaus of the Department requiring the action of higher authority, will be submitted to the Chief of Staff for his consideration.

The Assistant Secretary of War is vested with authority to decide all cases which do not involve questions of policy, the establishment or reversal of precedents, or matters of special or extraordinary importance. Matters coming within these exceptional classes will be submitted by the Chief of Staff to the Secretary of War direct. All other matters will be submitted by the Chief of Staff to the Assistant Secretary of War. Should the Assistant Secretary of War think that the questions submitted to him by the Chief of Staff come within the exceptional classes, he will submit them to the Secretary. The Chief of Staff will indorse upon every paper coming to him his recommendations, views, or remarks, and transmit the same to the Secretary of War or to the Assistant Secretary of War, as the above rules require.

The submission of matters to the Secretary by the Chief of Staff will be in person. Before presentation to either the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary the cases should be completed by obtaining the necessary recommendation, reports, or information from the bureaus of the Department or the military authorities outside of the Department, and to this end the Chief of Staff is authorized to call therefor "by order of the Secretary of War."

Business which reaches the Secretary's office, or that of the Assistant Secretary, and is acted upon through the channels above described, will be returned to the Chief of Staff, who will issue such orders through The Military Secretary as may be required "By order of the Secretary of War." The Chief of Staff is only empowered to issue orders in his own name or by his own direction to the General Staff Corps.

These requirements should be clearly understood to relate to military business, and are not in any way an abrogation of the following direction in War Department Orders of November 7, 1905, viz:

"Matters of a purely civil nature will be referred by chiefs of bureaus direct to the Secretary of War unless otherwise required by their subject-matter."

All orders, regulations, and instructions contrary hereto are hereby revoked.

WM. H. TAFT,
Secretary of War.
